Description

An elegant 19th-century carved and gilded wooden coffee table. The remarkable oval tabletop features a rich relief decoration composed of putti, grape clusters, vine leaves, fruit, and sheaves of wheat, framed by a substantial carved border. The central base, which is particularly spectacular, is adorned with several cherubs carved in the round, gathered around a design of sheaves and resting on a richly molded circular base. A decorative piece with a commanding presence, characteristic of the historicist taste of the late 19th century, intended to take center stage in a distinctive interior.
