Description

A beautiful charcoal drawing enhanced with watercolor by Albert Lebourg, a painter of the Rouen School, who was born in Montfort-sur-l'Isle in 1849 and died in 1928. A friend of the painters Monet, Pissarro, Gauguin, and Sisley. Here is a stunning demonstration of his immense talent with this lively view of the banks of the Seine. A remarkable work of art, characterized by precision and delicacy! Signed in the lower left corner. In very good condition! From a private collection! Dimensions: 41x32 cm with its gilded frame and 31x23 cm without. A visually stunning painting!
