Description

Discover the emotional intensity of a masterpiece that transforms the harshness of winter into pure visual poetry. In this extraordinary oil painting on wood, Maestro Giovagnoli immortalizes "Winter" with rare mastery: weathered arms and hands, marked by hard work, clasp with dignity a large bowl brimming with the fruits of the earth. Pomegranates, symbols of protection and wealth, intertwine with green apples, yellow-red apples, and grapes in muted hues, creating a textural contrast of poignant beauty. A museum-quality work, created in the early 1950s in the Republic of San Marino (H 60, W 40).
