Description

Ceramic vase by Jean Gerbino in Vallauris, crafted from polychrome mosaic clay. Ovoid shape with a tapered neck ending in a wide, rounded rim. The body features a stylized floral design composed of geometric and plant motifs in shades of green, blue, beige, brown, black, and white. The neck and upper section are also crafted using a mosaic of colored clays. Gerbino's characteristic technique involves creating the design directly in the clay, using clays of different colors that are assembled and worked before firing. Gerbino / Vallauris marks on the base, visible in the photographs. Dimensions: Width: 10 cm Height: 13 cm Condition as shown in the photographs, with signs of age and wear from the manufacturing process.
