Description

A stunning vintage Christian Lacroix brooch with a spectacular and decidedly baroque style, emblematic of the designer's rich and vibrant world. This piece features a large, stylized, asymmetrical cross crafted from metal with a patinated finish and accented with enamelwork in deep red and orange tones. At its center stands a second golden cross, generously set with rhinestones and faceted gemstones in luminous hues. The composition is enriched with numerous articulated pendants--some silver, others in shades of amber, copper, and orange-red--which lend movement and depth to the brooch. The piece plays on contrasts in materials, colors, and textures in a luxurious, theatrical, and distinctly haute couture style. A striking vintage jewelry piece, ideal for collectors of Christian Lacroix
