Description

A striking and playful side table with two tops, crafted from polychrome-painted wood in shades of red, blue, yellow, and green. The piece rests on four legs shaped like giant colored pencils, with natural wood tips and ends reminiscent of pink erasers. The two square-shaped tops, with rounded corners, feature a lacquered finish in primary colors. This creation is part of the distinctive world of Pierre Sala, a French designer whose 1980s furniture is known for its humorous, graphic, and particularly colorful style. The "Crayon" collection is among his most recognizable designs.
