Description

An 18-karat yellow gold "Medal of Love" signed by the famous Augis house. On the front, the inscription reads "+ qu'hier et - que demain." The "+" is adorned with a diamond, and the "-" with two rubies. The reverse side of the medallion is blank (engraving available for an additional fee). This well-known expression among romantic lovers is a line from a poem by Rosemonde Gérard dedicated to her husband, Edmond Rostand. It was made famous by Alphonse Augis, a jeweler from Lyon who, in 1907, had the idea to create a medal engraved with this verse. This phrase has since become a powerful symbol. In perfect condition. French craftsmanship from the second half of the 20th century, marked with the "Hibou" hallmark. Dimensions - Weight: 3.76 grams Length including the bail: 2.93
