Description

This captivating winter landscape, created in the first half of the 20th century, represents a magnificent example of European Impressionism. The canvas captures the quiet majesty of a snow-covered coniferous forest on a mountain ridge at the hour of sunset. The artist, working with a dense, textured brushstroke, meticulously sculpted the snow caps on each branch, which lends the canvas tangible expressiveness and volume. The rich colour palette is built upon subtle transitions: from the deep shadows of the conifer needles to the shimmering nuances of light in the lilac-pearlescent sky, which creates a realistic and mesmerizing sensation of a frosty winter evening. The canvas will become not only an exquisite aesthetic accent in an interior, but also a true find for connoisseurs of highly
