Description

First half of the 20th century Morocco Elegant cushion cover featuring Fès embroidery in cochineal red, dating from the first half of the 20th century. Very fine embroidery in floche silk thread on unbleached cotton, featuring geometric motifs in the Arab-Andalusian style. Perfect for adding an oriental touch to your decor. The back is lined with unbleached cotton from the same period and features a slit for the cushion. Nothing like modern Moroccan production! Bright, clean color, with no stains or holes. Very good overall condition. Dimensions: 46 cm x 35 cm
