Description

Art Nouveau / Japanning-style folding screen. Probably from France or Belgium. Circa 1890-1910. Double-sided folding screen / room divider. One side features Art Nouveau-style painting with characteristic motifs of whiplash patterns and swans. The colors are truly magnificent. The other side features "Japanning"-style paintings. One area is damaged (see photos). The geishas with their shamisen and the figure holding a fish are inspired by ukiyo-e prints. Dimensions: 178H x 201L
