Description

Large vase made of thick glass by glass artist David Gueron, known as Degué (1892-1950). In 1926, Degué became head of the Compiègne glassworks and, that same year, of the Degué art glassworks. Shaped like a baluster, this Art Deco-inspired vase features shades of coral red and brown against an orange-tinged background. Beautiful, luminous finish. "Degué" signature engraved. Very good condition Height 11,5" Width 5,9"
