Description

Abstract modern art sculpture in bronze, in the Brutalist style, signed 28/200. Characteristic of the 20th century. In this type of artistic creation, the work does not feature a universal or religious symbol to be deciphered, but rather a free interpretation of geometric and organic forms. It is suspended at the center of a geometric frame made of polished steel. Presentation: The artwork is suspended vertically at the center of an open square frame, which in turn stands on a weighted base. The signature is to be identified. It is numbered 28/200. Dimensions of the Sculpture: 17 cm by 15.5 cm
