Description

Original color lithograph by Louis Evrard (1905-1989), a French painter, draftsman, and lithographer born in Dunkirk, best known for his works depicting the maritime world and the harbor landscapes of Coastal Flanders. The composition features several fishermen and other figures gathered on a pier, surrounded by boats and elements characteristic of the maritime world. The highly graphic style, the simplified forms, and the color palette dominated by ochres, browns, grays, and shades of blue-green give the work a decidedly modern aesthetic. The work is hand-signed in pencil "L. Evrard" and numbered 23/100. A beautiful, decorative print representative of Louis Evrard's maritime world, which will appeal to both lovers of modern art and collectors of seascapes, prints, regional
