Description

This exquisite miniature depicting the portrait of a young nobleman was painted by an anonymous English master at the turn of the 17th century. The gentleman is dressed in a sumptuous doublet richly decorated with intricate patterns and metal accents. He wears an imposing, heavily starched ruff--a remarkable historical detail that underscores his high social rank. A heavy gold chain is elegantly draped over his shoulder, further emphasizing his privileged status. The miniature is in excellent condition and possesses exceptional artistic and historical value.
