

Antique Filigree Brooch From Gablonz, 1920s

60 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

We are offering for sale an authentic, beautifully preserved brooch from the Gablonz region, world-renowned for its jewelry. It dates from the Art Deco period. Its design strongly resembles the highly sought-after creations of the Neigel brothers. The back features the rare original raised stamp, which serves as the regulatory export hallmark of that era. The clasp is a functional brooch clasp, typical of the period. Length: approximately 5.5 cm Width: approximately 2.6 cm Weight: approximately 7.9 g In good condition, consistent with its age and well-maintained.
