Description

An elegant little bowl that can be used as a trinket dish or a small planter. Made of porcelain in the shape of a shower foot, resting on a slender gilded brass base carved with oak leaves and ribbons. The tripod base is shaped like a seashell with an oak leaf at its center. The upper bowl features an openwork design that gives it a very light appearance. In very good condition. Signed with a number. 20th-century piece. Shipping available.
