Description

In this vibrant composition, Margaret Boberek unfolds a luminous palette of blue, mauve, pink, and yellow that creates an ethereal, almost dreamlike floral landscape, where color becomes matter and emotion. Margaret Boberek is a contemporary artist born in the United States who studied under the renowned Italian painter Piero Dorazio. Her work is distinguished by a constant exploration of light, painterly texture, and chromatic poetry, often inspired by nature and inner landscapes. Her paintings are included in various private collections across Europe.
