Description

Oil on canvas depicting a lively rural landscape in the style of the Barbizon School. The composition centers on a pond in the foreground, bordered by reeds and brought to life by birds (ducks or moorhens). A rowboat rests on the bank; one cow is drinking, and a second is joining her. In the background, a farmhouse stands on wooded land. Several figures enliven the landscape, including a horse-drawn cart loaded with hay on the right and a couple conversing in the shade of a large tree on the left side of the canvas. The entire scene is rendered in a soft, luminous atmosphere characteristic of landscapes inspired by the Barbizon School. This painting dates from the 19th century and is unsigned. Length: 41 cm Height: 30 cm The work has been cleaned by a painting conservator
