Description

A refined antique fireplace mantel dating from the 19th century, executed in the elegant Louis XVI manner. Characterized by its balanced proportions, fluted jambs, and subtle neoclassical ornamentation, this mantel embodies the timeless sophistication of French architectural design.Handcrafted from natural stone and enriched by a beautiful aged patina acquired over generations, this piece offers both authenticity and decorative appeal. Measuring 149 cm in width and 111 cm in height, it provides an impressive focal point while remaining suitable for a wide variety of interior settings.
