

A Rare Series Of Porcelain Vases Attributed To The Sèvres Porcelain Manufactory

800 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Description

Description: Porcelain painted and gilded. Each of these twelve vases is adorned with three cartouches framing a bouquet of flowers, with gold decorations on a blue glaze. The quality of the bouquets is that of a miniaturist. We have acquired a large collection of beautifully crafted antique bronze pieces from furniture, light fixtures, etc. Since our workshop specializes in gold leaf gilding, all these trim pieces will be in perfect condition--either retaining their original gilding or having it restored now at no prohibitive additional cost. Since we cannot list everything online, please call us to find out if we have one or more pieces that suit your needs. Condition: Rare exemplar and an exceptional set of twelve for this type of object. Dimensions: Height: 5.5
