

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Albert Neuhuys (utrecht 1844-1914) Three Studies Of A Child - Oil On Paper

950 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting on paper

Description

Albert Neuhuys (Utrecht 1844 - 1914 Locarno) Three Studies of a Child Oil on paper, marouflaged onto canvas, 29.5 x 25 cm In a faux tortoise shell frame, 39 x 34.5 cm With the artist's studio stamp in red at lower right Provenance Private collection, The Netherlands* An unusually fresh and spontaneous oil sketch of a child in three different positions by the Dutch painter Albert Neuhuys, presumably made in preparation for a larger finished oil painting. Although such sketches were not made for sale but rather remained as part of the studio holdings, nowadays they are more highly regarded than the artist's finished works. Neuhuys was originally part of the Larense School, and later became associated with members of the Hague School, including Jozef Israëls, Anton

Dealer

Red Rose Fine Art

Old Master paintings, drawings and prints, objets d'art and porcelain

Tel : 0031629514501

Gouda 2801P

Mauve and the Maris brothers. He specialised in interior genre scenes, which were hugely popular during his lifetime but have slightly fallen out of favour since. Good condition for the age. A very minor damage to the right of the child and thin associated spot in the canvas. Shipping in Europe: EUR 25