Carved oak
Haute Époque - Late Renaissance / Louis XIII
Impressive two-tiered buffet featuring mascarons and ornamentation.
A magnificent two-tiered carved oak buffet with a recessed upper section, dating from the late 16th or very early 17th century, showcasing remarkable decoration drawn from the French Renaissance ornamental repertoire. The piece consists of two stacked sections, with the upper part slightly set back and defined by a substantial molded cornice. The front features four doors, richly embellished with carved panels.
