Description

The Flight into Egypt - 17th-Century Italian School
A beautiful oil on canvas depicting The Flight into Egypt, showing the Holy Family resting in a vast, wooded landscape. In the center, the Virgin tenderly holds the Infant Jesus close to her, while Saint Joseph, standing beside her, watches over the group. In the foreground, the young St. John the Baptist, recognizable by his reed cross, rests in a peaceful pose. The scene unfolds beneath tall trees with dark foliage, opening in the distance onto a luminous landscape. The painter elegantly plays on the contrast between the figures, rendered in vibrant colors, and the brown and greenish tones of the landscape. With its balanced composition, the gentleness of the postures, and the prominence given to the landscape, this work follows in the
