Description

A single-candle holder shaped like a reclining woman, her back arched, her arms outstretched to support the candle, made of high-quality bronze with a medal-like patina. A highly decorative contemporary piece from circa 1970. Regarding the geographical origin of this object, as I am not a specialist but rather a generalist, I will deliberately remain noncommittal and will not risk making a precise attribution that might turn out to be incorrect. Unsigned, no foundry mark. In perfect condition. Free shipping within mainland France. Please contact me by email if possible. I am available to provide further information.
