Description

Pair of Art Deco-era vases decorated with flying doves by Legras. Well-known among collectors, this lovely pair of glass vases features three doves on each vase, depicted in various poses but integrated into a highly graphic diagonal frieze, fully in keeping with the Art Deco spirit of the period from which they originate. Beautifully delicate, entirely etched on an opaline and brown mottled background. The vases are luminous and blend seamlessly into even the most modern interiors. Each vase is signed, of course, in perfect original condition, 38 cm tall, circa 1925. Please note that it is possible to purchase just one of these vases for half the price. Even in today's most design-forward apartments, they'll fit right in... Even though these vases are 100 years old! The magic of the Art Deco period!
