Description

Curved Louis XV-style corner cabinet in walnut - Circa 1920
Beautiful curved corner cabinet in walnut, Louis XV style, circa 1920, featuring an elegantly curved front. The front features two curved doors with molded and scalloped panels, elegantly echoing the decorative motifs of the 18th century. The lower rail is also scalloped and rests on curved legs, giving the piece a light and harmonious silhouette. The interior features several corner shelves that follow the shape of the cabinet and provide ample storage space. One will particularly appreciate the fine quality of the walnut, its warm hue and patina, as well as the care taken in the joinery and molding. A decorative corner cabinet with a striking presence, representative of the Louis XV style in the early 20th century. Period: circa 1920 Style:
