

Violin-colored Silk Damask Chasuble With Bougran Lining--spain Or France--19th Century

350 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Linen

Description

19th century Spain or France Beautiful, large Roman-style chasuble made of deep purple damask silk, embellished with gold ribbons. Design featuring a crowned ironwork motif and stylized sheaves on a satin background. Beautiful lining in glazed linen bouclé (one 2-cm hole). No defects; features period patina. In very good structural condition; suitable for wearing or as a historical display piece. Dimensions: Back 116 cm x 104 cm. Front 98 cm x 62 cm wide.

Dealer

Villa Rosemaine

costumes et textiles anciens

Tel : 06 32 88 38 10

436 route de Plaisance

Toulon 83200