Description

Dimensions: 11.5× 4 cmA rare liturgical key made of gilded wrought iron, Flamboyant Gothic style. Ring, cut with a saw, forms an openwork cross, three of whose arms are topped with fleurs-de-lis. It rests on aspherical knob and extends into a ring adorned with iron beads. Shaft is drilled, and the bit is straight with straight slots. The piece retains its hot-applied gold leaf, worn by time but still luminous, giving the object a precious and ceremonial character. An interesting piece as a reference key or a 19th-century Neo-Gothic collectible, rare in this level of decorative quality. Condition: wear on gilding, one missing bead, visible scratch on top of shank. Defects visible on photographs. eclectic --We are not experts, but we have been in the business for over 50 years.
