Description

A magnificent 18th-century wall sconce, complete with its console (lamp base) and cornice. A work of great finesse featuring a painted floral design of exceptional artistic quality. In very good condition. The clockwork is in working order, though a minor overhaul may be needed to restart the mechanism, which has not been running for about ten years. Sold as is. Visually very decorative! Dimensions: 95 cm high by 38 cm wide, 15 cm deep, and 30 cm in diameter for the clock face. Very attractive antique patina. A rare model.
