Description

A bust portrait of a young woman in profile with blonde hair adorned with roses, possibly depicting Flora, the goddess of spring, in the historicist style of the late 19th century.

Fragment of an antique canvas mounted directly beneath a slightly domed glass panel, to which the canvas appears to have been affixed. The glass contains a small air bubble as well as some irregularities along the edges, resulting from its previous mounting. Dimensions: height 42 cm - width 33.5 cm. Showing signs of use, including wear, losses, and alterations to the paint layer, particularly along the edges and on the surface, all of which are visible in the photographs.
