Description

Bronze bust of a veiled girl -- Belle Époque, green patina
A charming little bronze bust with a vibrant and refined green patina, depicting the head of a young girl with wavy hair, wrapped in a veil or hood that falls delicately over her face. The expressive, almost dreamy gaze, along with the delicate rendering of the face and the folds of the fabric, reflect the craftsmanship characteristic of the late 19th century. The bust rests on a sleek, square pedestal, giving it a look that is both decorative and sculptural--ideal for a library, an office, or a display case. A charming and beautifully crafted piece for lovers of antique bronzes. Height total 20cm, bust only 13cm.
