Description

Jean SOUVERBIE (1891-1981) La Cueillette, 1960 Oil on Masonite Original frame Signed and dated lower right 60 × 41 cm without frame Painted in 1960, La Cueillette depicts a nude female figure carrying a basket filled with fruit, set against a densely painted vegetal background dominated by dark green tones. The composition is built around simplified forms and strongly defined volumes, characteristic of Jean Souverbie's figurative language. The treatment of the body and face emphasizes lines and masses rather than detail, while the contrast between the brown tones of the figure and the surrounding vegetation structures the composition. The work reflects Souverbie's interest in the human figure and scenes connected with rural life.
