Description

Here is a beautiful oil on panel by the Russian artist Eugène Klementieff (1901-1985), The Evangelist, based on a stained-glass window by Georges Rouault (French painter and printmaker (1871-1958) The composition borrows the harshness of Rouault's characteristic dark contours, blended with the Cubist and Expressionist influences specific to Klementieff's work. The work is signed in the lower left corner. This work is estimated to have been painted during the 1960s or 1970s Height: 42 cm. (without frame) Width: 33 cm. (without frame) Born in Russia in 1901, Eugène Klementieff settled in France in the early 1920s. He regularly exhibited his works in Paris at the Salon des Artistes Indépendants and the Salon d'Automne beginning in 1926. His most
