Description

Early 20th-century painting depicting a clergyman reading. A very beautiful painting of high quality, with a pleasing subject and rich in detail. A work in the spirit and style of Otto Kirchner, who excelled at this type of subject in the early 20th century. Signed in the upper right corner; artist to be identified. Note the indirect lighting of the scene provided by a very well-rendered candelabra. A very appealing collector's item to be included in a fine collection.
