Description

Oil on canvas, signed lower left, an elegant still life featuring a decorated porcelain tea set, accompanied by flowers, fruit, and glassware, in an intimate atmosphere with refined tones. Exhibition (labels on the back): Association des Beaux-Arts de Cannes, 8th Exhibition, 1910, "Still Life" The year is 1902. Gathered at the café "L'Abeille," at the foot of Suquet Hill, a dozen artists decided to form a group, work together, and exhibit their works once a year. The group quickly began organizing major annual Salons and international exhibitions that marked the cultural season and attracted winter visitors to the French Riviera.
