Description

An elegant pair of solid silver candlesticks, decorated with faceted panels on both the shaft and the cap. The octagonal base, adorned with rounded fluting in the center and accented with fillets, is wider than the shaft. It supports a slender baluster shaft resting on a similarly faceted knob. The wide candle holders, with rounded contours and embellished with fillets, harmoniously complete the ensemble. The set features a refined design characteristic of the Louis XVI style. Net weight: 844.2 g. Hallmarks: Hallmarks are visible mainly on the bowl bases. A hallmark is also present on one of the legs, but remains illegible. Legible hallmarks: R crown, corresponding to the years 1733 or 1780. DR crown. Condition: Visible signs of wear. Visible distortions on the
