Description

A beautiful gouache painting (with watercolor highlights and charcoal/pencil lines) depicting a lively scene of fishermen returning from a fishing trip at the harbor. It depicts fishermen in traditional attire (sailors' jackets, yellow oilskins, and overcoats) bustling around baskets of freshly unloaded fish at the foot of the rigging and sailboats docked at the pier. A lively composition showcasing a masterful handling of light and movement. Technique: Gouache and watercolor on paper/cardboard Date: Early 20th century (circa 1900-1930) Signature/Monogram: Signed lower left. Framing: Sold in its mat with a rich antique molded frame gilded with gold leaf. CONDITION Artwork: In good overall condition considering its age. Some slight foxing or yellowing of the paper due to age, which lends
