Description

A pair of Barocchetto-style armchairs, crafted from carved and gilded wood, featuring elaborate carvings of volutes, leaves, and curls that adorn the entire wooden surface. The legs and armrests feature a flowing line, culminating in scrolls that lend a timeless elegance. The seat is enhanced by a padded cushion, while the sides and backrest offer enveloping comfort thanks to their padding. Although there are signs of flaking gilding, these armchairs retain their historical and decorative charm. Dating from the first half of the 20th century, they represent an example of Italian craftsmanship that combines functionality and aesthetic beauty. ANSESE0323496
