Description

A Barocchetto-style drop-front chest made of walnut and walnut burl, embellished with elegant maple inlays. The piece features a double-curved design on the front and sides and includes four drawers. The first drawer, located in the lower section beneath the top, is surmounted by a flap door that conceals a compartment with four small drawers, offering both functionality and style. The curved legs lend the piece a sense of lightness, while the poplar interior ensures sturdiness. The handles and the carved bronze pull add a touch of refinement. This piece, dating from the early 20th century, is a fine example of Italian craftsmanship. ANMOST0323254
