Description

A carved and gilded double bed headboard dating from the early 19th century, Italy. The piece features a central panel that is padded and upholstered in fabric decorated with floral motifs and scrollwork, which are elegantly repeated on the base's trim. Foliage and floral carvings enrich the headboard, giving it a sumptuous appearance. The gilding has been completely restored, revealing traces of the original lacquer in some areas. There are minor missing sections, which attest to the piece's authenticity and period. ANMOLE0322830
