Description

The engraved work shown here is the famous Portrait of François Langlois, known as Ciart, Playing the Musette, engraved by Jean Pesne (1623-1700) after a painting by Anthony van Dyck (1599-1641). The texture and grain of handmade paper (with its micro-imperfections and natural frayed edge), characteristic of 17th- or 18th-century papers, are clearly visible in the margins. Small tears in the margins
