Description

"Spanish Farewell" by Adrien Moreau (1843-1906). Ink wash (or gray-scale watercolour) on paper. A genre scene in the Spanish style. A young woman dressed in traditional costume stands in the doorway of a stone house, her gaze fixed on a figure in a hat walking away along a tree-lined path. In the lower right corner is the inscription "VENTE ADRIEN MOREAU 1909". Since Adrien Moreau died in 1906, this stamp attests that the work comes from his posthumous studio sale held in Paris in 1909 to disperse his studio collection (studies, sketches, and watercolours unsold during his lifetime). Beautiful frame
