Description

A vintage 1960s bookshelf with a freestanding design, ideal for placing even in the center of a room. Made of teak-veneered wood, it stands out for its modular structure featuring storage elements with hinged doors, lift-up doors, and open drawers. The open shelves are height-adjustable, allowing for customization of use. The enameled metal uprights add stability and a touch of industrial style, while the brass supports complete the refined aesthetic. In good condition, it shows slight signs of wear that attest to its history and authenticity. MOMOLI0323866
