Description

A round table designed by Silvio Coppola for Bernini in the 1960s, an example of innovative design and functionality. This piece features an interesting retractable central riser, ideal for optimizing space and adding a dynamic element to the decor. The frame is made of walnut-veneered wood, with enameled wood accents and a white laminate surface, creating an elegant color contrast. The swiveling chrome-plated metal band adds a touch of modernity and practicality, making the table not only a decorative element but also a functional one. Perfect for those who appreciate vintage design with a touch of originality.MOTATA0321771
