Description

This Barocchetto-style console table with mirror, crafted from carved, lacquered, and gilded wood, is a refined example of late 19th-century Italian craftsmanship. The molded top, embellished with a fabric insert, is supported by four curved legs connected by a crosspiece at the base, while a beveled mirror panel adorns the back panel. The floral and foliage carvings, along with the gilded volutes, stand out against a green lacquered background, creating an elegant contrast. The upper section features a central beveled mirror, framed by elaborate molding that replicates the console's decorative motifs, maintaining stylistic harmony.
