Description

Jacques BILLE(Paris 1880-1943)The Village of Saint RomainOil on canvasH. 38 cm; W. 46 cmBest known for his flower pastels, Jacques Bille--a lover of nature and horticulture--never neglected the art of landscape painting during his many travels. Here, using his favorite hues, he depicts the charming hamlet of Saint Romain in northern Périgord. The bold brushwork in light tones evokes a springtime scene shrouded in a light mist, painted in the late 1930s.
