

Roman Charity 18th-century Oil Painting

1 450 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 22

Height : 27

Description

Oil on canvas, original canvas, depicting the famous scene: "Roman Charity," in which a young woman named Péra secretly feeds her father, Mycon, in prison, where he has been condemned to starve to death 18th-century French School; this high-quality work is in excellent condition, unframed, with beautiful rendering of colors and composition small format

Dealer

Galerie Etienne Thuriet

Mobilier, Objets d'art et décoration XVIIIe et XIXe

Tel : 02.37.22.73.90

Mobile : 06.13.61.34.95

41-43, rue des Changes

Chartres 28000