Description

A charming modernist photo frame in chrome-plated bronze. The removable glass panels are held in place by a large ball on one side and a circular post on the other, mounted on a long, openwork, stepped base. Very practical, its two glass panels allow you to display two photographs back-to-back. The photo(s) is/are placed between the glass panels. You'll be charmed by its understated, pure elegance. Art Deco period, circa 1930. A beautiful and rare piece that will look wonderful on a desk, a coffee table, or even an Art Deco sideboard! Dimensions (approximate): Total height: 27.5 cm Length x width of the stand: 30 cm x 6 cm Diameter of the sphere: 4.5 cm Height x width of the glass plates: 23.8 cm x 18 cm Total weight: 1,750 g Good condition. All original. Entirely period piece;
