Description

This magnificent French farmhouse table is an antique piece full of character, featuring an authentic original patina and a warm, natural hue. Crafted from fruitwood--likely pear wood--it rests on elegant, tapered legs. Its compact dimensions make this French wooden table versatile: it can serve as a dining table or a console table and fits easily into a variety of interior styles. Its simple, functional design gives it a timeless look, while the natural signs of wear highlight its history. Structurally, the table is in good condition and ready for use. It is a durable and charming piece of furniture that, with careful use, will last for many more years. It shows normal signs of wear for its age, which contribute to its unique character (see photos).
