Description

Elegant Art Nouveau table mirror made of pewter, formerly gilded, signed Aug. Moreau, with rich relief decoration featuring flowers and plant motifs. The composition, with its fluid and naturalistic lines, is characteristic of the Art Nouveau aesthetic around 1900. The mirror features a beautiful antique patina, with areas where the gilding has worn away to reveal the underlying pewter, giving the surface a subtle and nuanced tone. The mirror retains its gilded brass wire backing, forming an easel that allows it to be positioned at the desired angle. Dimensions: Height: 45 cm Width: 23 cm In good overall condition for its age. Beautiful antique patina with wear and areas where the gilding has worn away, revealing the pewter, as well as a few signs of use and age. See the
